Court | Session Thursday. Thursday's session of the superior court in this city was occupied by the Page will case that has been before the court for some time. Town Clerk Frank P. Fenton was the first to be examined and he identified the original marriage certificate of C. H. Page to Margaret, McDonnell Burrow. Upon an agreement of the opposing counsel it was decided to allow a copy of the certificate be admitted as an exhibit.

Dr. Frank E. Guild of Windham was then called to testify, He did not remember some of the important things that were asked him during his cross examination in regard to things that were said. On direct examination he stated that he had been the physician to attend both Mr. and Mrs. Page

At the opening of the afternoon session the witness was cross-examined by Attorney Danahey. During this examination the witness stated that he called at the Page home a number of times to treat the woman for nervousness and these times she was not under the influence of liquor. He told of ordering the nurse to allow Mrs. Page to have a certain amount of whiskey a day which was a very small amount. This he did as the woman had been in the habit of taking it every day and if she did not have it she might become effected physically. He did not know how much she took, however, as he was not there to see for himself. He attended her at her home after her first accident but he did not remember about the plaster cast. He admitted that liquor inight affect people in getting about but this was not so in her case. The doctor told of the symptoms of it. He did not did not think that she had dementia or symptoms of it. He did not did not think that she had dementia or asymptoms of it. He did not dispute an authority on the matter when it was pointed out that these symptoms of dementia. He thought that oms which Mrs. Page had were symp-oms of dementia. He thought that toms of dementia. He thought that Mrs. Page had a weak will as far as liquor was concerned and admitted that this and uncleanliness were symptoms of dementia.

The witness stated that the woman never talked strange to him and he did not remember if she had told him of things being stolen from her. of things being stolen from her. His visits were professional most of the time but he did admit that he had done other things for her. There were other nurses at the house beside Miss Driscoll, who was formerly of St. Joover the situation with Mrs. Page. On There is no question about Foley Cathartic Tablets. They are just a plain, honest, old-fashioned physic that acts promptly and effectively on the bowels without pain, griping or nausea. They keep the stomach sweet, the liver active, and bowels without a crutch although she would have to use a cane. She gave whiskey to Mrs. Page under though she would have to use a cane. She gave whiskey to Mrs. Page under though she would have to use a cane. She gave whiskey to Mrs. Page under the doctor's orders but this was although she would and never more than a wine glass full. She had never seen Mrs. Page drink a quart of whiskey a day in all the time she was at the house.

The last time the witness went to work for Mrs. Page the latter told the witness that the sisters were going to witness that the sisters were going to have her home. She remembered about the signing of the will and stated that the sisters were there at the time. Mrs. Page was not under the influence of liquor that day and she knew what she was doing. Mrs. Page requested the witness to read the will which she did and thought it a good one. Mrs. Page told the witness that she wanted her to be provided for.

Court then adjourned until this morning at 10.15 at which time a short calendar session will be held. The jury were told to report at 10.30.

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizzness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can surely get relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapepsin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why it relieves sour, out-of-order stomachs or isdigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapepsin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but what will please you most is that you will feel that your stemach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.
